

POSTDOC APPRECIATION WEEK Sep 16-20th 2024

For over a decade the Postdoc Appreciation Week has already been celebrated in Great Britain and the USA to put postdocs in the spotlight. Recently, the Munich Postdoc Network and the University of Hannover have joined forces to establish the Postdoc Appreciation Week in Germany too. It is based on the firm conviction that postdocs in Germany also deserve more attention, visibility, and support given their key role in the German science system - and their difficult working conditions/career prospects. This year the JSMC is joining the celebration of postdocs with a series of online events during the celebration week ...
